HOW DOES & Charles SANTA GET By Frederick Wads-HIS MAIL? Worth

(@. 1922, Western Newspaper Union.) I'LL bet old Santa Claus is gettin' letters by the ton

From boys an' girls that's 'fraid he will forget;
I don't see how he takes the time to open ev'ry one—There's lots o' toys he hasn't finished yet

But then, he knows how many kids will look for him to come.

An' all the year he's making something new; An' that old shop o' his, I know he makes it hum. An' Mr. Santa Claus, I bet, can hustle,

But how does Santa get his mail—that's what I'd like to know— The postman couldn't carry it, I'm sure; It's not so easy goin' miles an' miles an' miles in snow, An' nothin' like a little pleasure tour!

Jes' think of all the hundred thousand million million tots .That told old Santa what they want this year: An' even in this town o' ours there's lots

There's Johnny Jones that wants a bat, and Jimmy wants a ball, An' Harold Brown an engine that will run: An' Lucy Smith a doll that talks, an' Bess a parasol. An' little Eddie Davis wants a gun. There's Harry Green whose daddy's store has ev'rything there is, But Harry thinks that nothin' there

A baby sister's what he wants, an' one that's truly his—
An' maybe Santa Claus'll bring him two!

Then think o' all the other towns an' citles 'round the earth,
An' all the children sendin' Santa word
To make each little home a place o' gladness, joy and mirth, Where Chris'mas noise an' laughter may be heard. It may be Santa hitches up his reindeer to the sleigh To get the mail that tells him what

But anyway, I hope each kid will have on Chris'mas day
